There is nothing quite like a car. Wherever we turn this omnipresent menace (or should we say "sensible means of transport") is with us. But where would we be without one? Could we really face our friends and neighbours without our "four-wheeled friend"? Even if it means our bank-account is more often in the "red" than the "black" if we see a car we like - we MUST HAVE IT! In many societies a car is a status symbol which says to everyone just how cool, trendy or well-off the driver is. More CC's, expensive stereos or funky add-ons all add up to create our own personal advertisement. Being different or innovative is cool, too. Fancy a swimming pool in the back of your car? Too late, that's already been done! Anyway, most of us can only afford a DIY sink... Of course, we must not forget that cars are thought of as phallic symbols by many men (and women, too!). Even the cheapest two-seater sports car can boost your potency and self-confidence... and there is no doubt that some ladies love something hot and throbbing to play with! And, talking about the ladies, we must not forget that they love their cars as well. Some of them even like to give their cars cutesy kitten names... like "Love-bug" or "Fluffy"...

But whatever car YOU drive, remember it has a PERSONALITY... and that is what the exhibition is all about! So come along to the 2nd International Car Caricature Exhibition in Zagreb 2008. You know it makes sense... And there is plenty of parking space for your "personality extension", too!
